

TWIN CITIES

Amanda Vermilyea

2025 Hall of Fame Inductee | Superior Performance

Amanda Vermilyea has achieved outstanding success at the local, state, collegiate, national, and international levels. A Junior Team USA and Team USA member, she earned numerous international medals and helped the University of Nebraska win two NCAA championships while collecting some of collegiate bowling's highest individual honors.

Twin Cities and Minnesota Championships

2018-2019	St. Paul Women's City Queen and St. Paul All-City Team honors.
2019	Minneapolis Women's City Championship Team Actual champion.
2020	Minneapolis Women's City Championship Team Actual champion.
2018	Minnesota State Women's Championship Team Actual champion.
2019	Minnesota State Women's Championship Team Actual champion.
2021	Minnesota State Women's Championship Team Actual champion.
2021	Member of the Minnesota State scoring-record team with a 2,075 series.
2010	Earned Honorable Mention recognition.

Youth and National Team Career

1999-2003	Greater St. Paul Youth All-City Team and Princess honors.
2003-2006	Member of Junior Team USA.
2004-2007	Member of Team USA.

International Competition

2003	Tournament of the Americas: four gold medals in Doubles, Team, All-Events, and National All-Events; silver medal in Singles.
2003	International Youth Friendship Tournament: silver medal in Team and bronze medal in Doubles.
2004	World Tenpin Team Cup silver medalist.
2004	Tournament of the Americas: four gold medals in Doubles, All-Events, Team, and National All-Events; silver medal in Singles.
2005	American Zone Championships gold medalist in Team competition.
2005	Tournament of the Americas: gold medals in Mixed Doubles and National All-Events; silver medal in Team; bronze medals in Singles and Doubles.
2005	International Youth Friendship Tournament: gold medals in Trios and Team; silver medal in Doubles.

Collegiate and National Honors

2004	USBC Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow.
2004-2005	Member of the University of Nebraska NCAA Bowling Championship teams.
2005	NCAA Bowling Championship Most Outstanding Player.
2005-2007	NTCA First-Team All-American at the University of Nebraska.
2007	NTCA Division I Player of the Year.
2007	University of Nebraska Athletic Department Hero Leadership Award.

Hall of Fame Honors and Honor Scores

2019	Inducted into the Minnesota Junior Bowlers Tour Hall of Fame.
2020	Inducted into the Minnesota State USBC Hall of Fame.
2020	Inducted into the University of Nebraska Athletic Hall of Fame.
300 Games	Five USBC 300 games plus two 300 games on sport conditions.
800 Series	Two 800 series.

Career Excellence

Amanda's championship record, international medal success, collegiate honors, and sustained performance earned her induction into the Twin Cities USBC Hall of Fame for Superior Performance.